

NACCIMA CODE OF ETHICS

Membership is accepted on the bases of mutual trust and respect, dignity and best business practices.

Generally, Members of the Association are expected:

- 1) To be loyal in all our dealings and to have mutual respect for the laws of the land and of other Nations;
- 2) To protect the health, safety and economic environment of all;
- 3) To be fair, firm and transparent with customers, suppliers and competitors;
- 4) To respect the right to fair competition as an acceptable Global phenomenon;
- 5) To respect the confidentiality of Business/Trade secrets or information of constituent members entrusted to us;
- 6) Not to take advantage of fellow members' recognized weaknesses and not to unethically seek to take over the ownership of a member's business or rights;
- 7) To promote and protect the business interests of Private Sector Operators by healthy networking;
- 8) To shun any form of abuse of office, bribery and corruption;
- 9) To always remain a partner with all tiers of Government but to be non-hesitant to criticize or disagree with bad policies and/or actions of the Government;
- 10) To commend the good works and policies of Government that enhance better living standards and economic growth of our Nation, NIGERIA;
- 11) To settle disputes or disagreements that may arise within the Chambers of Commerce Movement and associates internally;
- 12) To avoid as much as possible any member taking grievance(s) to the Law Courts for settlement without first recourse to the intervention of the Chambers of Commerce Movement.